

eEurope Awards for eGovernment – 2005

Call for applications to open on 16 March 2005

Register now and be candidate for an award at the Ministerial eGovernment Conference 2005!

An i2010 Event

The eEurope Awards for eGovernment - 2005 ceremony will take place at the Conference plenary. The eGovernment applications selected for the eEurope Awards 2005 will play a central role in the Conference and it is the intention to demonstrate them at the Exhibition

Who can apply?

All Public Administrations in Europe¹ (national, regional, local, etc.) delivering eGovernment services and having valuable lessons to share as Good Practices with other Administrations are encouraged to apply.

How to apply?

You will be able to apply from 16th March 12:00 CET hours by submitting your case electronically via www.e-europeawards.org. Full information and guidelines will be available at the same site; a helpdesk will also be available for any possible doubts.

When to apply?

The call will be opened from 16th March (12:00 hours CET) until 1st June 2005 (12:00 hours CET).

Pre-register now!

You can now pre-register your interest in the eEurope Awards through the Helpdesk of the eEurope Awards website to receive news on the call. Please indicate the following reference: “Expression of interest – Call 2005”.

You can also register for the eEurope Awards news service.

For more general information on the eEurope Awards please visit the eEurope Awards website: www.e-europeawards.org or contact the eEurope Awards Helpdesk.

For further information about the Ministerial eGovernment Conference 2005:

http://europa.eu.int/egovernment_research

(1) Applications are expected from EU Member States, candidate countries, Iceland, Norway and Switzerland.